20663215

S-Stands for Seniors--this story will relate.
E-For Energy that all of us hate.
N-Stands for No--our most favorite phrase.
I-For Intelligence--a few deserve praise.
O-For Obedience--a pill hard to swallow.
R-For the Rules we hardly ever follow.

C-Stands for Class that we try to be.
L-For Love there's plenty you see.
A-For Athletics we Seniors stand first.
S-For Satisfactory--in which we are worse.
S-For Sorry and now you ask why?
"Cause this spring we all say good--bye."

BOYS' VARSITY

The boys' varsity team consists of James Lucchesi, David Foster, David Sullivan, Richard Guerra, David Frost, Andrew Landini, James Smith, Michael Chulada, and Jack Lojko. Coach, Mr. Arthur Silva.

Coach Silva, Sull, Guerra, Chulada, Smith, Lojko, Cap Landini and a faithful crew of substitutes and jayvees defeated everyone in the Eastern Division of the Wachusett League twice, excepting Groton, with whom they split. This qualified Littleton for the League play-offs against Ashby. Knowing this team had not, even while doing its best at any given time, realized its great potential in losing the play-offs 2-1. Coach Silva altered his original plans to enter the Fitchburg Teachers College Tourney and entered the Eastern Mass. Tourney instead. This meant playing out of Littleton's class, as our size school is class E and the Eastern Mass. Tourney includes no class below D. While coaches and officials of other schools shook their heads sorrowfully at the dismal prospects for Littleton in its decision to "outclass" themselves, the team proceeded to defeat the defending champions, Wayland, in the opening round, and Norwell in the quarter-finals. This qualified Littleton to play a semi-final game at the Boston Garden. An excellent East Bridgewater team, to whom no team need be ashamed to lose, finally, after an even game for almost three quarters, overtook the hard-working Littleton team, and won by a decisive margin.

GIRL'S VARSITY

The girls' varsity team this year, although playing in the afternoon, maintained high spirits throughout the season. Under the coaching of Miss Martha Leino, the girls displayed good sportsmanship. They feel the turning point of the season was when one guard, Minnie Cantino, became ill and could not play for the rest of the season. Better luck next year, girls.

Led by co-captains Carol Cunningham and Judy Smiley, members of the team were Minnie Cantino, Julie Hosmer, Nancy Sammarco, Penny Dalton, Mary Delamater, Judy Champagne, Jane Campbell, Donna Michaels, Ida Bloodworth, Karen McNamara, Barbara Munro, Joan Carrow.

Representatives who were sent to the All-Star game were Carol Cunningham, Julie Hosmer, and Judy Smiley. The team managers were Judy Coslett and Janet Rakip.

GIRL'S J. V.'S

The girls' junior varsity team this year, displaying wonderful co-operation with the coach, had a difficult start, for an entirely new squad had to face the opposing JV teams of neighboring towns. However, they made a good appearance.

Dorothy Edwards, Jackie Grey, co-captains, Laurel Comeau, Sandra Geise, Eleanor Gregoire, Joan Malsbenden, Julyanne Westby, Nancy Delamater, Karen Slez, Marlene Rush, Gail Seger, Barbara Seger, and Carol Dimitruk, comprised the JV team.
